NOW, THEREFORE, for the reasons and causes mentioned in said Complaint, and praying that the usual process of the Court be had, and that all persons asserting an interest in or right against the defendant properties may be cited to appear and answer all the matters therein propounded, and that this Court will order and decree the condemnation and forfeiture of the said properties and will order the disposition of said properties;

YOU ARE, THEREFORE, COMMANDED to arrest, attach, and seize the defendant properties, as more particularly described in the Complaint, and maintain them in your custody until further order of this Court respecting the same, and to give due notice as provided in Rule G(4) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime and Asset Forfeiture Claims by publication and by sending notice of the pending forfeiture to all persons who reasonably appear to have an interest in or right against the properties; that they must file a verified statement identifying the interest or right with the Clerk of this Court not later than thirty-five (35) days after the notice is sent; or if notice was published but direct notice was not sent to the claimant or the claimant's attorney, a claim must be filed no later than thirty (30) days after final publication of newspaper notice or legal notice or no later than sixty (60) days after the first day of publication on an official internet government forfeiture site, or within the time that the Court allows, provided any request for an extension of time from the Court is made prior to the expiration of time within which
